

MIDWEST COLLEGIATE WATER SKI ASSOCIATION (MCWSA) Bylaws

Approved 3.17.2017

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this organization shall be the "MIDWEST COLLEGIATE WATER SKI ASSOCIATION," MCWSA, a division of NCWSA.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose of the Division shall be to organize, promote, and direct collegiate water skiing in the states of IA, MN, WI, NE, KS, MO, ND, SD, IN, IL, MI, and OH through affiliation with the NCWSA and other states by formal request.

ARTICLE III

Membership and Voting

III.1 Club Membership

Club membership in the MCWSA is open to any college or university water ski club from the states listed in Article II. Each active club shall have voting privileges in their region. To be eligible to compete in NCWSA Tournaments, member clubs must have a minimum of one competitive member. All club members must be registered students on his/her respective campus, and subject to NCWSA Official Tournament Rules. To have voting privileges, a team must attend a tournament or other MCWSA sponsored event.

III.2 Individual Membership

Individual competitive membership in the MCWSA is open to all members of an affiliated club. Individual members shall have voting privileges in their respective affiliated club per affiliated club rules.

III.3 Eligibility

1. All rules and requirements regarding A-Team Eligibility, Medical Red Shirts, School Accreditation, Years of Eligibility, Team and Individual Eligibility

- penalties, and transfer eligibility shall be governed according to NCWSA Rule Book Section 4.0
2. The MCWSA shall require eligibility letters and approved information on each skier prior to the start of any qualifying tournament (Including Conference, Regionals, and Nationals) or that skier/team will not be allowed to compete.
 3. The MCWSA shall require a Team Roster Verification form (Found on NCWSA.com) prior to the start of the fall competitive season. FIRST YEAR TEAMS WILL HAVE UNTIL THEIR FIRST QUALIFYING TOURNAMENT.
 4. All teams within the MCWSA shall have the opportunity to present these documents to their Conference or Regional chair for a minimum of one week prior to the beginning of the competition in question. Any team failing to present these documents at the tournament registration will not be allowed to compete without majority approval from the Executive Board of Directors prior to the start of competition.

III.4 MCWSA Dues

An annual MCWSA fee of $30 will be assessed to each club participating in the Midwest Region and must be paid prior to any team qualifying tournaments. The money collected will be used to cover the cost of operation of MCWSA outside the framework of NCWSA. The Executive Board of Directors will determine the amount of this fee annually. New teams will have this fee waived for one year from the start of their first tournament.

III.5 NCWSA Team and Individual Skier Dues

An annual club affiliation fee and an individual membership fee is assessed each club and individual competing in any sanctioned NCWSA event or tournament. The amount of this fee presently $30.00 for team affiliation. NCWSA Skier dues amount to $5 per individual membership. Individual membership is defined as any skier that has participated in any single tournament on either A or B team. The dues will be waived for new NCWSA Teams in their first year of competition.

III.7 Late Fees

Any team or member of a team will not be allowed to participate in any MCWSA qualifying event or any NCWSA qualifying event if any of the above dues/fees are late. Once the late dues/fees are paid in full and the team and/or team member are in good standing with the MCWSA/NCWSA, the team or team member shall be allowed to participate.

ARTICLE IV

XII.3 Regional Tournament Record

Regional tournament records can only be set at the regional championships.

ARTICLE XIII

Mind Altering Substances

1. Individuals and teams are subject to rule 7.07 of AWSA official tournament rules, particularly as it addresses unsportsmanlike conduct and mind-altering substances.
2. The MCWSA further addresses this rule as follows:

- a. Each team and its individual competitors are prohibited from consuming or assisting in consumption by anyone of mind-altering substances during each day's competition. Consumption on site is prohibited until all boats are finished running and teams are responsible for their alumni and supporters.
- b. Unsportsmanlike conduct includes but is not limited to conduct either on or off the tournament site, before, during, or after the tournament. Examples include but are not limited to destruction of property, verbal abuse of tournament officials, competitors, or others, interfering with tournament operations, failure to cooperate and participate in the successful completion of the tournament.
- c. Any skier found to purposefully and knowingly violate the site owner's rules, tournament director, or the above stated MCWSA rules will be immediately disqualified from the tournament and scores voided. Their status to compete in future tournaments within that ski year will be determined by a majority vote of the Executive Board. Where two or more members from the same team are found to knowingly and purposefully violate this clause their entire team is at risk of disqualification and suspension from the remainder of the season as determined by a majority vote of the Executive Board. Additional penalties may be incurred where the board sees fit.

ARTICLE XIV

Suspension or Expulsion

XIV.1 Violations

A member or team may be suspended or expelled at the discretion of the executive board of directors for:

 - a. Disqualification from said tournament, if applicable
 - b. Loss of hosting own tournament for one year, if applicable
 - c. One year probation period

2. Second violation within two years of last violation, in addition to one violation penalty:
 - a. Four year probation period
 - b. Suspension from the current Fall Season or upcoming Fall Season
3. Third Violation within two years of last violation, in addition to first and second violation penalties:
 - a. Regional Chairman notifies the school of violations and consequences
 - b. Two year suspension, from date of violation, in all MCWSA related activities

XIV.3 Appeals

Any decision can be appealed to the National Board according to the National By-laws.

ARTICLE XV

Grievance Procedure

Any member of MCWSA, team of MCWSA, tournament host, or AWSA official may file a written grievance with the Regional Chairman alleging any willful violation of MCWSA, NCWSA and USA Water-ski rules or procedures, criminal or fraudulent act, unsportsmanlike conduct, failure to pay indebtedness, or any other act which is contrary to the objectives and purposes of the NCWSA and USA Water-ski.

ARTICLE XVI

Due Process

In such instances that grievances are filed the Regional Chairman shall confront the accused of the written grievance. The purpose of this is to notify the member(s) or team of the situation, and to notify them that this grievance will be brought in front of the board.

After this, the Regional Chairman shall bring in front of the Executive board the written grievance. The accused, if present, will leave the meeting for a period of discussion between those not accused. After the board's discussion the accused may have a chance to defend, present evidence, or apologize to the board for such actions. The accused will then leave the meeting once again and the remaining board members will vote on disciplinary action if needed.

ARTICLE XVII
